DMV CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

To be eligible to receive a DMV Certificate of Completion a student must successfully complete both the classroom and in-car laboratory experience. Attendance is mandatory for all classroom and in-car driving instruction. Due to the COVID-19 in car training limitations, a parent/guardian must document and attest to providing 12 of the 24 hours of in-car instruction. A passing grade is 65 or above. Any student that fails either road class or classroom instruction will not be issued the certificate. If the student fails one or the other but their combined average is 65 or above, they will be eligible only for the insurance reduction certificate.

I have read, approve and will encourage my child to comply with the expectations set down in the driver education registration letter.
